

LEARNING TO READ IS FUN

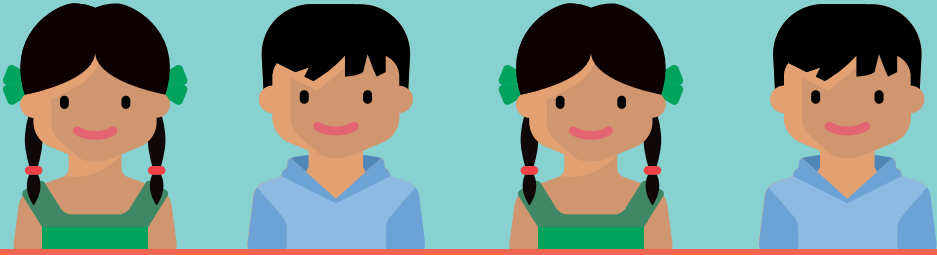

NAFISA MOOCHHALA

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Nafisa Moochhala is a child psychologist and educator based in Mumbai.

She taught postgraduate students child psychology at Bombay University. In her private practice, spanning over forty years, she has encouraged and motivated young children by making learning a fun activity.

This book is aimed at children who are just beginning to read by including words and stories that make the experience of reading easy and enjoyable.

This book is aimed at motivating a child just starting to read by making reading an easy and enjoyable experience.

The book uses the phonic approach along with visual recognition of words makes reading easy for the child. The narratives in the book are written to hold the child's interest and to enable him/her to read independently.

